

Call for Entries: How Are You Making Your Mark?

20 x 20 x 40: SDA Members Make Their Mark Presentation

Deadline for entries: June 15, 2017

20 x 20 x 40: SDA Members Make Their Mark is a special opportunity for SDA Members to present their work at the 2017 SDA Making Our Mark, 40th Anniversary Biennial Conference in Portland, Oregon, August 3-6, 2017. Eight conference participants will be selected to give a “PechaKucha-style” presentation. Selected participants will show 20 images for 20 seconds each, speaking while the visuals advance automatically. Juried by Cameron Anne Mason, this presentation style was a favorite at the 2015 Made/Aware: Socially Engaged Practices Intensive at Arrowmont.

This year the theme is open: How are you making your mark? Tell us your story. Application requirements include conference registration, presentation title, one paragraph synopsis, three images and a short bio. There is no cost to apply. Application deadline is June 15, 2017. Submission instructions follow.

PechaKucha (which means “chit chat” in Japanese) is a format for concise presentations that originated in Tokyo and has been adopted all over the world. SDA’s modified version will give viewers a deeper exposure to the range of work created in 2D, 3D, installation, or community projects by eight SDA members selected from submitted applications. Participants will have a chance to present to an international audience and jumpstart their opportunities for networking within the organization.
